

Chaparral Association of Parents & Teachers Revocable Proxy

Note: Because Arizona Corporate Law requires a quorum at the Corporate Annual Meeting, we are asking for your Revocable Proxy for such annual meeting in the event that you are unable to attend.

The undersigned hereby applies for membership in the CHAPARRAL ASSOCIATION OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS, a social non-profit Arizona Corporation, and hereby appoints either the President or the Secretary, and their successors in office, his/her true and lawful proxy, to vote his membership favorable, in favor of the recommendation of a majority of the incumbent Board of Directors of said Corporation in his/her place and stead as he/she might do if personally present on all matters coming before the membership including, without limitation, the election of directors of said Corporation, provided, however, that if the undersigned should be personally present at any such meeting of the members of said Corporation and shall there elect to vote his/her membership in person instead of by proxy, said right shall at all times be reserved to the undersigned member. This proxy shall continue in full force and effect unless and until revoked in writing by the undersigned member(s) directed to the Secretary of the said Corporation.
